CHING'S WORM LOZENGES.

THE following attestation of the astonishing efficacy of this Medicine, well deserves the attention of our readers.—It is not like many of the wonderful cures said to be performed by common Quack Medicines, upon persons never to be found—but is the unadorned testimony of an honest man, in our own country, well known in the neighbourhood of Gatehouse, Copy of a letter from Alexander Morrison, Gatehouse, to Mr Dickson, Druggist, Dumfries.

SIR,
My son, aged about seven years, was afflicted for several weeks, with headache, pains in his stomach and bowels, attended with loss of appetite, lowness of spirits, itching of his nose and frequent grinding his teeth during sleep: Having heard of Mr Ching's Worm Lozenges, I sent for a small packet of the same, together with a great number of smaller ones, immediately after the first dose the symptoms abated, and by giving a few doses more, he was restored to his usual good health. For confirmation of the truth of the above, application may be made to me at Gatehouse, stewardry of Kirkcubright.

I am, Sir,

Your obliged and most obedient servt.

ALEX. MORRISON.

Copy of a second letter from said Alexander Morrison, to Mr Dickson, Dumfries.

SIR,
Since I wrote you last, I gave my son another dose of Mr Ching's Worm Lozenges, whereby he passed other five large worms, measuring from 10 to 14 inches long, one of which I herewith send you, thinking that so useful a Medicine cannot be rendered too public. By means of it, with God's blessing, the life of my child has been preserved.

I am, Sir,

Your obliged and most humble servt.

ALEX. MORRISON.

SEPTEMBER 4.

NAUTICAL INTELLIGENCE.

By letters received from the Channel fleet, dated August 25. we are informed that the French fleet in Brest are fifteen sail of the line, and nine frigates, and it is thought they will make an attempt to get out.

Dispatches were yesterday received from Admiral Lord St Vincent, dated the 6th ult. which contain nothing particular from the Mediterranean fleet.

The Lisbon mail which arrived yesterday brought no intelligence respecting the British fleet in the Mediterranean. Lord St Vincent had received no information of Admiral Nelson's operations.

A Maltese ship arrived at Lisbon, on the 15th of last month, with sixteen Portuguese Knights. This vessel failed from Malta on the 23d of June, and brought merely a repetition of former accounts, that the main body of the French fleet failed on the 19th of June, having left a garrison of 5000 men on the island.

A Spanish 80 gun ship, from the Havannah, having 14 millions of dollars, and the Governor of the Havannah, who is brother to the Prince of Peace, on board, has, it appears, eluded the vigilance of our cruisers, and arrived safe at Vigo.

A Portuguese armed vessel is appointed to carry home some men supposed to be United Irishmen, who lately arrived at Lisbon from Ireland, and were arrested at the request of Mr Walpole.

Government cutters are placed at different stations in the river, by order of the Admiralty Board, in order to see that the embargo on ships in the River Thames is observed with the greatest punctuality.

The object of the secret naval expedition is probably the destruction of the grand armament now lying fully equipped in the Texel, and defined, as it is conjectured, for a descent on Ireland. For this spirited attempt, four large bomb vessels, sloop rigged, and eight brig fireships, dropped down last week from Galleons and the Medway, to the Nore, to join a squadron of frigates; the whole of which were expected to sail yesterday, under the command of Captain Popham, for the Texel.

Sailed, on Saturday afternoon, the Baltic fleet, consisting of about 120 sail, under convoy of the Andromache, of 32 guns, Captain Mansfield, from Sheerness. They were quite out of sight at six o'clock the same evening, with a fresh breeze at W. N. W.

TARMOUTH, Sept. 3.

Arrived four Dutch Greenlandmen, sent in by the North Sea fleet.

FALMOUTH, Aug. 30.

A large frigate has just anchored off the bay, and sent up a prize, a French sloop, part of the fleet destined for Ireland, but parted company in the night. The prisoners say a large body of troops are assembling, to be embarked for this coast.

By accounts from Portsmouth, received this morning, we learn, that the North Gloucester regiment of militia, about 1100 strong, have volunteered their services in Ireland, and yesterday set off in waggons to Bristol, there to be embarked.

The two flank companies of the North Gloucester yesterday left Weymouth for Bristol. Waggon, post-chaises, and every other carriage that could possibly be procured, were taken for their conveyance.

The 10th regiment, that had embarked at Portsmouth for the East Indies, is ordered to remain at Spithead till further orders. The 48th and 58th regiments, destined for Gibraltar, and the 61st and 81st for the Cape of Good Hope, have likewise received notice to remain at Portsmouth for the present. The Lisbon fleet has also been detained.

Upwards of 10,000 hogsheds of sugar have been entered, in the course of the last fortnight, at the Customhouse for Hamburg; and still larger quantities are ready for entering.

At Rome, the work of French plunder is still continued. Their agents are still busied in packing the best statues in the great museum. Amongst others, they have seized the well-known figure of the Nile, a Colossal statue. Forty buffaloes were employed to draw it to the Ripa Grande, from whence it was to be embarked for Paris.

The Royal Family stopped at Hartford Bridge to breakfast, and from thence proceeded to Salisbury, and were elegantly entertained at the Bishop's Palace.

The retinue was escorted on the road by parties of the 7th and 3d light dragoons.

On arriving at Salisbury, the yeomanry cavalry were drawn up in lines as the family passed, who were also saluted on their journey by the different volunteer associations; at Dorchester by Captain Bowes's regiment, and at Upway by the volunteers commanded by Capt. Gould, who fired a feu de joye when the Royal Family appeared on Ridgeway Hill.

Their Majesties arrived at Gloucester Lodge at a quarter past five in the evening in perfect health; on entering the town they were received by another party of the 3d light dragoons, Berkshire militia, flank companies of the Shropshire, South Hants, North Gloucester, and South Devon militia, the Weymouth volunteers, and Weymouth and Wyke independent fuziliers.

The Diadem, commanded by Captain Towry, and the Diadem, Capt. Hardy, both 64 gun ships, and the Blonde frigate of 32 guns, Captain Dobree, fired a Royal salute on the occasion; and, besides the numerous troops who escorted their Majesties to the Lodge, a vast concourse of spectators were assembled, who greeted them with plaudits of "Long live King and Queen."

After dinner their Majesties and the Princesses walked on the esplanade till dark; Sir William and Lady Pitt, and the Hon. Miss Townshend, who arrived here on Friday with Lady Paulet and Lady Sudley, spent the evening with the Royal Family at the Lodge. A general illumination of the town of Weymouth took place in the evening.

This morning his Majesty rose very early, and with his attendants walked on the esplanade.

At eleven o'clock the Royal Family went to Weymouth Church, where they heard divine service and an excellent sermon preached by the Rev. Mr. Grave, the rector, from St. Matthew's Gospel, chap. vi. and part of the 11th verse.

"Give us this day our daily bread."

After service the King walked on the esplanade till dinner time.

The town fills with company, and the Manager of the Theatre expects to reap a good harvest.

SEPT. 3.

A very foggy morning this day. His Majesty bathed at half past seven o'clock, for the first time this season.

An order for three days embargo on all vessels arrived at the Custom-house here at five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

HAY MARKET THEATRE.

Mrs Johnston made her first appearance last night, on this stage, in the character of Ophelia, and displayed a degree of taste, feeling, and judgment, seldom to be found in the first attempt of so young a candidate.

The elegant person, pleasing and impressive countenance, and fine voice which this Lady possesses—her youth and unembarrassed simplicity, are well suited to the interesting character she chose for her debut, and mark her out for the only Ophelia on the boards.

Though her emphasis was in some instances faulty, promising not appearances we ever witnessed.

The talents of Mr Johnston were last night exhibited, for the second time, in Hamlet. The natural powers of this performer are second to none; and the graces of his person, and the modulation of his voice, place him above all his competitors. With these advantages, however, he is contented to be an imitator of Kemble, who, by labour and art, has chalked out a path for himself well suited to exhibit his own powers, and probably also to conceal his defects. The Hamlet of Kemble is not the Hamlet of Shakespeare. The actor has infused too much of his native irascibility into the Dane. Hamlet is melancholy rather than hot; fentitious than declamatory; above all, there is a rich vein of satirical humour in his character, which is evaporated and lost in the harshness and severity of Kemble. We confess, therefore, much as there is to be learned from Kemble, we should rather with Mr Johnston to ascend to the pure fountain of Shakespeare for inspiration, and to express the passions of the character from natural feeling and good sense, rather than from authority. Let him shew less of the player—let him lay aside his starts and rapid motions of the eye—let him fix his imagination on Hamlet rather than on Kemble, and we venture to prophecy that he will soon have no rival in the bulkin.

Such a Hamlet, and such an Ophelia, yield an entertainment highly acceptable to the lovers of our immortal bard.

If the manager could not find a better King than Mr Caulfield, he might at least have found him a better coat. He was literally "a King of shreds and patches," and eminently calculated to degrade the royal dignity. Barrymore is an admirable Ghost; but we may be excused for hinting that his shoes creaked too loud for a spirit.

We think Davis has more of the Dane than ancient Roman in him.

We lament to state the renewal of the yellow fever at Jamaica, and that Captain Chilcote, of the Adventure, of 44 guns has been amongst its numerous victims.

Major Potts, a gentleman who, from his strong feelings of humanity, offered 1000 guineas to the physicians if they could recover the late Mr Palmer, was on Saturday, quite unexpectedly, found dead in his bed, at Liverpool.

The treaty of alliance, defensive and offensive, concluded between France and Switzerland, is looked upon as so advantageous to both countries, that it was not thought necessary to refer it to the consideration of a commission; it was simply read in the Council of Five Hundred, and unanimously approved. According to this treaty the Swiss are to take an active part in the war, should it recommence; this will afford a considerable aid to France by means of the warlike disposition of Switzerland, of its inaccessible mountains, and of the numerous inroads which it opens from France into the Emperor's dominions. It will enable the Swiss to preserve the integrity of their territories, and at the same time it will relieve them from the guardianship of the French Commissaries; who, by their vexations, exactions, and harassing manœuvres, have proved the principal cause of the animosity and discontent that have been excited in that country.

At Rome, the work of French plunder is still continued. Their agents are still busied in packing the best statues in the great museum. Amongst others, they have seized the well-known figure of the Nile, a Colossal statue. Forty buffaloes were employed to draw it to the Ripa Grande, from whence it was to be embarked for Paris.

The Count Metternich, at the reiterated solicitations of the Deputation of the Empire, transmitted on the 21st, to the French Ministers, the conclusion of the 7th of August, in its original state, by restoring the articles relative to the demolition of Ehrenbreitstein, but without giving it his sanction.

The following answer was given to it yesterday:— "The undersigned, Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republic for carrying on the negotiation with the German Empire, have received the note of the Deputation of the Empire, which was transmitted to them on the 21st instant, by the Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the Emperor.

"It results from this paper, that the Deputation of the Empire was actually occupied in deliberating on the 3d article of the note of the French Legation of the 19th of July; that it had given an answer to that article, but that the article was not found, as it should have been, in the note communicated the 10th of August by the Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the Emperor. It is the effect of an omission which cannot be attributed to the Deputation, and for which every possible reparation is now made by the restitution of the next.

"As an explanation on the subject matter of the answer, the undersigned declare, that they cannot in any way listen to what is proposed to them, and that account of the reasons sufficiently detailed, and annexed to the 3d article of their note of the 19th of July, they permit more strongly in their opinion on that point, as well as on all the other articles of the same note, which they have equally offered as conditions of peace. The undersigned therefore refer to the two notes of the 19th and 10th of August, the object of which, instead of being determined, still subsists completely; and adding to the declaration made by them to the Deputation of the Empire, that it remains responsible for the consequences which may be produced by further delays, they require it repeatedly to furnish without delay an answer both categorical and separate, with respect to all the articles of their note, and particularly that of the 19th of July, to which it has not yet given its consent.

"The French Government sincerely wishes for peace. It proves that with its moderation, and its more so by employing all the means of melioration which are in its power. If the Deputation wishes for it, they desire to believe, let it at length come to a decision. Peace can be retarded but by those who think of the public calamities, and who are blind with respect to their future interests.

A fitting is to be held to-morrow for the purpose of answering this note.

The courier from Vienna, expected with impatience and anxiety, is not yet arrived.

THIS DAY'S POST.

The Minister, it is understood in the higher political circles, has so far made his financial arrangements, unless some unexpected event should intervene, a meeting of Parliament is not to take place till Christmas.

Amongst the financial plans of the Minister, he is said to have one to offer to Parliament on its meeting, which must ever prevent the three per cents. from falling under 60!

It was yesterday reported, we hope without foundation, that one of our packets from Cuxhaven, with a mail on board, has been captured by a French cruiser.

The Hon. General Charles Stuart set off yesterday afternoon from his house in Scotland Yard for Plymouth, to embark with his suite to Portugal, from whence, after joining his regiments, he is to proceed with them to the East Indies. General Stuart's lady and his son accompany him to the sea port. He is attended by his aid-de-camp, Captain Gifford.

The last Gazette contains an order of Council, declaring the States of Italy, which have been occupied and revolutionized by France, Genoa, the Papal territories, &c. in a state of war with this country.

Many persons now pretend that the accounts of the landing of Buonaparte at Alexandria are erroneous; and that the intelligence originated in a mistake in consequence of Admiral Nelson having appeared there after the arrival of the Hamburg mails that are due, at the next French papers, will probably settle this point.

The secret expedition which has been preparing for some time past, failed from the Nore about eleven o'clock on Saturday morning. It consisted of two line of battle ships, four frigates, eight bomb-vessels and fire-ships, and a considerable body of sloops, cutters, and transports, amounting in the whole to fifty-two sail. The wind was at W. S. W. the whole of that day, and continued so all the next, and to Monday evening, within which time it is possible that the fleet reached its place of destination, if it prove to have been, as is conjectured, the coast of Holland. Important advices respecting the event of this expedition may every day be expected to arrive.

The Dutch have 14 sail of the line in the Texel—Three or four of these, however, are East-Indiamen, very indifferently equipped, and very badly manned.

Yesterday there was a very smart price for sealions on the river, and a number of useful hands were procured, and sent on board the Enterprize receiving ship at the Tower, from whence they are to be immediately conveyed to the guardship at the Nore.

The Councils have settled the expenses of the army and navy of France for the next year, at 262 millions for the army, and 125 millions for the navy.

M. Gerlach, Professor of Mathematics at Vienna, has invented a balance, by means of which persons may ascertain with the greatest nicety the force of the wind, however violent it may be.

Offers may be made either with the view of taking the farm as it at present stands, or with an addition from the lands in the possession of the proprietor, and the names of offering offers may come forward as soon as convenient, more especially as the proprietor is at present on the spot, and will be ready to treat on any point that may require discussion.

ESTATE IN THE COUNTY OF ABERDEEN.
TO BE SOLD,
THE LANDS AND ESTATE OF BRUXIE AND AUCHINLECK, lying in the parishes of Old and New Deer, and District of Buchan, confining to about 1440 Scots acres. The present free rent is 372l. 8s. 8d. of money, 104 bolls meal, 42 bolls oats, 2 bolls of butter, 12 capons, and 102 hens. But, as all the lands under lease are on different terms granted long ago, and have been much improved during the currency of the lease, and are still capable of very great improvement, and many of the tenants far advanced in years, a considerable increase of rent will soon be got. The lands of Auchinleck are about 480 Scots acres, the present rent about 100l. and 46 bolls of meal, and may be sold separately. The whole estate is in the vicinity of the sea, near kirk, market, and post towns, and in the neighbourhood of lime. On Bruzie there is a large, commodious, modern house and offices, with an excellent garden, well stocked with fruit-trees, all in good order. The mains are extensive, well fenced, and subdivided with stone walls, mostly in old grass, and out of lease. If the lands are not sold by private bargain betwixt and November, they will then be advertised for public sale. For further particulars, application may be made to Mr William Fraser, at Kirkton, near Fraserburgh; Mr Peter Farquhar, advocate in Aberdeen; Mr Charles Innes, writer to the signet; or Hugh Bremner, accountant in Edinburgh, who has power to sell by private bargain. And John Lamb, the ground-ficer, will shew the lands.

SALE OF LANDS IN ORKNEY,
AND
NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
To be SOLD, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon the 19th November next, between the hours of one and two o'clock afternoon,
THE FOLLOWING LANDS, which belonged to the late JOHN TRAILL of Westness, Esq. viz.—
The Six-penny Land of Midland, Garson, and Hamerin, the Mill of Rendall and astricted Maltures, with One-half-penny Land in Halkland, all lying in the parish of Rendall; also, the One-penny Land of Charleland, Four-penny Land of Deal, Three-penny Land of Dyke, Three-penny Land of Fealquoy, Two-penny Land of Pow and Stow, One-penny Land of Oversdale, One-penny Land in How in Costay, Two-merk Land in Breck in Outer Costay, and Four-merk Udal Land there, and the Lands of MIDHOUSE and PAL-LACE, all lying in the parish of Evie; also the lands of NETHER ST CATHARINE'S QUOY, with the houses, yards, and pertinents; the particulars of all which, with the lots in which the same are to be exposed to sale, will be specified in a future advertisement; and for further information, application may be made to Mr David Balfour, W.S. Edinburgh, or Mr Hugh Spence, Kirkwall, with either of whom all those having claims on the late John Traill of Westness are requested to lodge notes thereof, with their grounds of debt, and oaths on the verity, against the 15th October next.

LANDS, AND A FREEHOLD QUALIFICATION, IN Ayrshire.
To be Sold by public roup, within the house of James Manson, innkeeper at Tarbolton, upon Thursday the 27th day of September next, at one o'clock afternoon,
THE FOLLOWING LANDS, lying in the parish of Tarbolton, in the Lots aftermentioned:
Lot I.—THE LANDS OF BURNHOUSEHALL, with the teinds and pertinents, as presently possessed by John Burns. The lands hold of the Prince, consist of 150 acres or thereby, are all arable, of an excellent soil, all inclosed and subdivided, and the dykes and hedges all thriving, and in the best condition; the present rent thereof is only 90l. Sterling, but at the expiry of the current tack, which endures only six years from Martinmas next, will yield more than double rent.—These lands are rated in the cess-books of the county at 188l. 9s. 8d. Scots.
Lot II.—THE LANDS OF HIGH AND LAIGH RAITHS, and LITTLE LADYKIRK, with the teinds and pertinents, as presently possessed in three different farms by John Dick, Robert Cairnie, and William McJamet. These lands also hold of the Prince, consist, as the others, of 150 acres or thereby, are all likewise arable, of an excellent soil, all inclosed and subdivided, and the whole dykes and hedges surrounding and subdividing each farm, thriving, and in the best condition. The rents of the farms in this lot are no more at present than 87l. 10s. Sterling, the tacks expiring at Martinmas 1806, 1807, and 1808, when the rent will more than double. The lands in this lot are rated and stand in the cess-books of the county at 118l. 14s. 6d. Scots.—There are good farm houses on each of these farms, which were all built since the commencement of the present tacks.
There is an excellent free stone quarry in Little Ladykirk, of the same quality with an adjoining one wrought by Mr Gairdner. It is believed there are also both coal and lime stone in the lands, although the same have not yet been wrought, and little search made for them. The farthest extremities of both lots are within four measured miles of the town of Ayr, to which there is an excellent toll road, and on each of them there are sundry situations for building mansion-houses, the best perhaps to be found in Ayrshire, commanding a most extensive view of the Frith of Clyde, Craig of Ilay, Island of Arran, town and harbour of Ayr, &c.—The purchaser of each lot will be assigned to a charter lately expede, the precept of which has never been exhausted.
Persons desirous of viewing the lands may apply to Mr James Cairnie, factor; and for other information as to the title-deeds and articles of roup, to Mr Thomas Martin, No. 1. George Street, Edinburgh, or Mr John Boswell, writer in Ayr, to either of whom any person inclining to make a private bargain may apply.
Lot III.—THE SUPERIORITY OF THE LANDS OF LAIGHLAND and LOCKER MOSS, which pay an yearly feuduty of 60l. Sterling. The casualties of superiority are not taxed—a full year's rent of the lands is therefore due at the entry of a singular successor, and a double of the feuduty at the entry of an heir to the feu, which consists of about 1100 acres of highly improved land.
The lands of Laighland hold of the Crown, are returned to a five pound land prior to the year 1681, and the superior now stands for the same in the roll of Freeholders of the county.

LANDS IN LANARKSHIRE FOR SALE.
To be Sold by public roup, upon Wednesday the 10th day of October next, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, & between the hours of two and four afternoon,
THE LANDS AND ESTATES OF GARNKIRK and BEDLEY, AULDYARDS and others, lying contiguous and adjoining to each other, within the parish of Calder and Barrony parish of Glasgow, in whole or in such lots as may be then agreed upon.
The whole lands extend to about 2300 acres. There is a going lime work on Bedley, and there is a field of coal on the lands of Kippis, Blacklands, and Gannie, which belongs to these estates.
The lands are generally inclosed, the soil is very improvable, and the farm houses are new and in good repair. The lime of Bedley is of a rich quality, and will with the coal contribute much to enhance the value of the lands, lime being otherwise a very scarce commodity in that part of the country.
The nett rental, crop 1796, amounted to 1293l. 16s. 1d. Sterling, or thereby; but as some of the leases have since expired, and a great proportion thereof will expire in four years hence at farthest, very great rises of rent may be expected. On the estate of Garnkirk there are above 400 acres of pasture ground in the proprietor's hands, several fields whereof have been lately limed with lime from Bedley.
The lands stretch for a considerable way, and to within four miles of the city of Glasgow, on both sides of the new turnpike road from Edinburgh by Cumbernauld. On the estates of Garnkirk and Bedley there are mansion-houses, and considerable quantities of full grown timber, and many extensive and thriving plantations. The mansion-house of Garnkirk, situated nearly in the centre of the estate, is a modern building, large and commodious; the principal rooms are nearly 30 feet by 20 each. The trees and plantations were valued in 1795 at the sum of L. 5014 17s. 1d. sterling, and the young plantations having been protected with great care since, have greatly increased their value, but nothing is stated in the rental either for the one or the other, neither is any value put upon the offices and garden of Garnkirk.
The lands of Garnkirk and Bedley hold of the Crown, and are valued in the Cess-books at upwards of L. 1275 Scots of valued rent.
For particulars, apply to Mess. Fotheringham and Pearson, writers to the signet, or to Mr Alexander Littlejohn, writer in Stirling, the factor; and William Wallace the overseer at Garnkirk, will shew the lands.

SALE OF LANDS IN STIRLINGSHIRE.
To be Sold, by public roup, upon Friday the 9th of November 1798, betwixt one and two afternoon, within the house of Mrs. Smith, vintner, west end of Linlithgow, and entered to at Martinmas next,
THE LANDS OF WESTER GILMEADOW, Stirling, and belonging to the heirs of William Phaup, and shire of ter in Madidton.
The lands are all arable, measure 48 Scots acres, and lie about one mile and a half west from Linlithgow Bridge; are divided into two each inclosure, and a thriving belt of planting round the whole, and there is a good farm steading on the lands.
For further particulars apply to James Taylor, writer in Linlithgow, in whose hands the title deeds may be seen; or to Mrs. Phaup at Madidton.
Mrs Phaup's servant will shew the lands.
